STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1902. 9 A. M.

NO. 80

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY.

The True and Tried Democrat and Distinguished Kentuckian, who was Re-nominated for Circuit Judge at Danville Wednesday.

HON. JOHN SAM OWSLEY, JR.,
The Ablest Commonwealth's Attorney in the State, who was Re-nominated at Danville, Ky.

HON. W. S. BURCH,
Who was Chairman of the Danville Convention.

PAINT LICK.

Corn is a slow sale at $1.75.
Fat hogs are scarce here at 6c.
Hog killing is in full blast here.
Our merchants are doing a rushing business.

We are to have another wedding in our midst soon.

Jack Adams sold to Mason Pullins a good work mare for $80.

George Broadbush had a fine horse to fall and kill himself while out driving last week.

Milt Condon, our log man, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents in Crab Orchard.

The Paint Lick people will make an effort to have a Xmas tree at Fairview Christmas eve.

Ike Arnold has rented the Veranda Hotel from John Siler for next year and will take possession Jan. 1.

Rodney Griggs bought of S. H. Blount his black smith tools and has opened up a shop on Lancaster street.

Rev. T. S. Roberts delivered his farewell sermon at Fairview Sunday, having accepted a call to Morganfield.

Rev. Lawrence, of Lexington, will fill his appointment for next Sunday.

Clell Terrill and son, Givens, left for Oklahoma to make their home. Mr. Terrill is one of our oldest citizens and we are sorry to lose him.

Mrs. Henry Moore, who has been quite sick, is improving. John Siler has recovered sufficiently to be on the streets again.

Mrs. Jennie Searcy is visiting her sister, Mrs. Katie Shears, of Red House.

Dr. Hunter, of Louisville, was the guest of Dr. Frank Walker. Miss Mary Clark Egleman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Norris in Richmond.

BAKED APPLE DUMPLING.

Peel and core as many apples as your appetite may wish.

Six or eight—perhaps a dozen—That would be a generous dish.

Make a dough like cracker biscuit. Roll it thin with skill and care.

Place an apple lightly on it—Take your knife and cut it square—Large enough to hold your fruit in.

Then within the vacant place Of the core a bit of butter, Cinnamon and sugar place.

Draw your square up well together, Pinch it gently on the top.

So your dough will be protected, Lost the cooking juices pop.

When your apples are all covered, Take a fork and prick them through.

'Twill prove better in the baking—Half a dozen times will do.

Bake them slowly, and, while cooking, Take of sugar just a cup,

And a modest lump of butter—And with light hand cream them up,

Adding extract and your hard sauce Set on ice to harden more;

Lift your apples from the oven And your labors will be o'er.

Serve them hot—the sauce adds flavor, And each dumpling, firm and brown,

Is a practical achievement—Adds a jewel to your crown.

HUBBLE.

Miss Mattie Mattingly is with Mrs. M. B. Eubanks.

Luce Bros. shipped a car load of hay at $12 to some mountain parties.

Mrs. Wm. Stanford has gone to Tennessee to spend the holidays with her parents.

Bro. Cook, of Burgin, will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and night.

T. C. Rankin bought some yearling mules of C. H. Yeager at $60. S. L. Nance, of Knoxville, was here Monday looking for a load of fat mules.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Corn in this vicinity is fine and is selling at $2 delivered.

Rev. Brewer preached at the Christian church Sunday to a fair audience.

Rev. Farris, of Lexington, has been called as pastor for the New Year.

Rev. J. M. Bruce preached his last sermon as pastor of the Baptist church Sunday morning. He will be called for the coming year. His many friends hope he will accept.

Messrs. Curtis Gover and J. W. Guest were sent as delegates to the Danville convention Wednesday to nominate candidates for circuit judge and Commonwealth's attorney.

Mr. George Spangler had quite a narrow escape from being killed by his team backing over a bluff and the wagon turning over on him. We are glad that his injuries are slight. His horses were badly hurt.

A great many men came in town last Saturday to attend the convention and it made the little city look quite business like for a while.

Judge Saufley and Mr. Owsley had many admirers on hand to look after their interests.

John Carson, from Alabama, was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Holman, for a few days. He is just up from a spell of typhoid fever.

Miss Beulah Carson, of Stanford, was visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Nellie Collier, of Brodhead, made her mother, Mrs. Amanda Tatem, a short visit.

Lewis Dishon died a few days ago. His wife is quite ill.

Mrs. Fish is a guest of W. A. Pettus and wife on Depot street.

Messdames J. G. Carpenter and D. V. Ballou came up from Stanford to visit relatives.

Miss Nettie Collier and Master George Andrew James were up Sunday from Stanford visiting relatives.

MATRIMONIAL.

E. H. Bobbitt and Miss Bell Tiller were married at Barbourville.

J. N. Winn and Miss Rachel Hodgkin were married at Winchester.

S. Edward Thompson, of Georgetown, and Miss Eugenia Tharp, of Mercer, were married yesterday.

Walker Stout and Miss Nellie Alford were married at the court house by Rev. J. W. Hagin yesterday.

Butler Benson, aged 22, and Mrs. Sarah Williams, 27, drove to Stanford yesterday and were united in wedlock's holy bond.

The postmaster general has issued an order amending the postal regulations by requiring that "whenever any woman employed in the postal service, either as postmaster or unclassified clerk marries, she must take the oath of office anew."

We are in receipt of an invitation to the marriage of Mr. Walter B. Curtis and Miss Lottie Wene, of Nashville, which occurs at 10:30 A. M., Dec. 23.

Mr. Curtis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curtis, of the East End, and is a most excellent young man.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Agnes Guttery, of this city, to Mr. J. K. Christian, of McIntosh, Fla., on Tuesday, Dec. 23, at high noon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Brown.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. L. C. Trent, pastor of the first Baptist church—Lincoln, Ill., Times. Mr. Christian is the clever turkey buyer, who spends a portion of each November and December here.

William Adams, the well-known Lexington monument man, is dead.

NEWS NOTES.

H. H. HENNINGER

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING,

of Danville, is a candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

CHARLES A. HARDIN, of Mercer, is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this, the 13th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

M. F. NORTH

Is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the party.

J. M. ALVERSON

Is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the party.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, which has been regular in the 30 or more years it has proclaimed and supported democracy, has no patience with those democrats who prove themselves irregular by participating in rump conventions. It claims that there was no excuse for the rump convention held at Danville Wednesday and it predicts that the Bell and Harding men will see the error and folly of their way ere many moons wax and wane. It was both childish and churlish in the supporters of Messrs. Bell and Harding organizing a convention of their own when they saw defeat staring them in the face. The claim that Chairman W. S. Burch was ineligible as temporary chairman and that his rulings were unfair and that this made them start a rump convention will not bear close investigation. Such lawyers as Col. R. P. Jacobs, Judge R. J. Breckinridge, Col. W. G. Welch and a host of others say that Mr. Burch was eligible as temporary chairman. Mr. Burch's rulings were not unusual, to say the least. But this is neither here nor there. The rump convention was held and Judge Ben F. Roach and D. Lee Currey, of Mercer, were made chairman and secretary, respectively. Resolutions were passed, etc., etc., and W. Conn Bell was nominated for judge and Charles A. Hardin, also of Mercer, for Commonwealth's Attorney. Mr. Bell accepted the nomination in a short speech but Mr. Hardin said "nary" a word. As stated elsewhere the regular convention nominated Judge M. C. Sausley and John Sam Owsley, Jr., for judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, respectively, and they are the gentlemen who will carry the banner to victory in November next.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, the greatest Negro in the world, takes a sensible view of the disfranchising of ignorant people in the South, by new constitutions. He says "we cannot elevate and make useful a race of people until there is held out to them a hope of reward for right living." The "hope of reward" in this case is the suffrage. "Every revised constitution throughout the southern states," says Washington, "has put a premium upon intelligence, ownership of property, thrift and character." If the Negro wishes to vote and to stand in this respect on a level with his white neighbors, he must learn to read and write, or must get together property enough to entitle him to the ballot. Until there is evidence to the contrary, it must be presumed that a colored man who has a right to vote under a revised constitution will be allowed to vote.

It is estimated by the Boston Globe that it costs Boston $2,765,000 a year for the prevention and punishment of crime. It costs Chicago over $4,000,000 for a partial list of expenses. But with a loss of $10,000,000 more added as the wages of sin there is an annual expenditure of $14,000,000. These expenses are annually increasing. A glance at these figures show that there must not be any relaxation in educational and suppressive methods to arrest crime in any of the cities and communities of the United States.

THE Danville News makes a little "fling" at this paper, but its editor feels too good over Judge Sausley's and Sam Owsley's nomination to notice it. In fact we are so tickled over our townsmen's "getting there" that we are almost willing to forgive Brer Lillard for all the mean things he has said about Judge Sausley. By the way Mr. Lillard, what about those "constituted authorities" you have harped so loud and long on?

THE most pathetic testimony yet heard by the anthracite strike commission was offered by an aged man who told the story of his eviction, with his dying wife, from a company house. A widow testified that it took her and her sons 13 years to pay off a company debt after her husband was killed in the mines.

THE commissioner of Indian affairs says that from the founding of the government down to 1890, $845,000,000 was spent in subduing and controlling the Indians and $240,000,000 for the education and care of their children. This is a large bill, though it is not to be compared with that for the civil war.

OUR TOWNSMEN WIN.

Judge Sausley and Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley Re-nominated.

We were right in our prediction that Judge M. C. Sausley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr., would be re-nominated for circuit judge and Commonwealth's Attorney at the Danville convention. It took only one ballot each to nominate them. They got Lincoln's nine votes, Garrard's seven and one and a fraction of a vote from Boyle. Col. W. G. Welch presented the names of Judge Sausley and Prof. M. D. Hughes, of Lancaster, that of Mr. Owsley. Mr. W. S. Burch, of Stanford, by virtue of his office as chairman of the biggest democratic county in this judicial district, was temporary chairman of the convention and was later made permanent chairman. Mr. Craig Ralston, of the Danville Advocate, was made secretary.

When the call for credentials was made Mercer and Lincoln presented their papers without contest. The entire delegation from Garrard was contested. It also developed that contests had been made from several precincts in Boyle county. Chairman Burch decided that the Sausley delegates from Garrard were entitled to seats in the convention and in Boyle county a vote and a fraction of a vote were given Judge Sausley, his per cent. of the precincts carried by him in the precinct convention of last Saturday. At this juncture a dozen or more Harding and Bell delegates tried to speak at once, claiming that Chairman Burch was not ruling fairly, that he was ineligible as temporary chairman and what not, but Mr. Burch knew his business and rapped several of them out of order. Some of the speeches were pretty fierce attacks, but Chairman Burch held his temper admirably and made the speakers feel ashamed of themselves. A move was then started by the Harding and Bell followers for a rump convention and they made Judge Ben F. Roach chairman and Lee Curry, secretary. All this was done while Chairman Burch was in control, so to speak, of the convention. Disorder and confusion became so great that the Chairman entertained a motion for adjournment and the convention stood adjourned until 7 P. M. This was about 3:30 P. M., and the convention had only been in session an hour. At the night session Judge M. C. Sausley and Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr., were nominated as above stated.

The rump convention completed its labors about 6:30 P. M., after nominating W. Conn Bell for judge and Charles A. Hardin for Commonwealth's Attorney. Neither a lawyer nor a politician we can not state positively what will be the result of the nominations, but we feel satisfied that if the State Executive Committee is called on to settle the matter, Judge Sausley and Mr. Owsley will be declared the nominees. Certainly they are the nominees of the regular convention and equally as certain it is that the rump convention was irregular.

In his speech of acceptance Judge Sausley said that while he had absolutely no doubt as to the legality and right of his nomination, he would yet be willing to go before the people in a primary election and let them say who they want as their nominee if Mr. Bell desired to do so.

As a chairman with backbone and ready answers, Hon. W. S. Burch has few equals. In the confusion and at all other times he was as calm as a May day, and after deciding as he deemed right, there was no change in him.

It is pretty tough that Robert Harding, who started the opposition to Judge Sausley, should get so hopelessly left at the Danville convention. He started in the race with his wrong foot forward and seems to have kept it in front all along.

OUR old friend, Harry McCarty, of the Jessamine Journal, is a candidate for Representative, and here's hoping the clever gentleman will win his race.

MESSRS. Nominees Sausley and Owsley we congratulate you; we shall support you. No rump business in "ours;" we want the straight stuff or nothing.

CAPT. R. C. BLAIN and wife, of Grant county, are visiting his mother, Mrs. C. R. Blain, in the West End.

IN ordering the I. J. sent to her at Spearfish, S. D., Mrs. Annie Underwood Holtzclaw writes that she has a good position in a dry goods store.

MR. S. P. GRAY, who had a jawbone broken while working with a drilling machine some months ago, was operated on Tuesday and is doing nicely.

MISS GRACE SMITH, trimmer for Mrs. Cleo Brown, left Wednesday for her home at Chillicothe, O. She will return in the Spring and assist Mrs. Brown.

MR. AND MRS. RUFUS LIPPS, of Hustonville, left Tuesday for Walla Walla, Washington, where Mr. Lipps has secured a good position with his cousin. The West End gave up this popular couple with much regret.

MRS. STAPPS' weekly letters from Somerset to the INTERIOR JOURNAL are quite the things needful to advertise the city and advise the people of its growth and desirability as a place of abode.—Somerset Journal.

MR. W. A. PETTUS, of the firm of Pettus Bros., who recently embarked in the mercantile business at Bryansville, was here Wednesday. He is well pleased with his prospects and has already fallen in love with his new home.

M. F. ELKIN, of Lexington, S. C. Knights of the Maccabees, was here last week and made two addresses in the interest of the order. His address Saturday night was highly interesting and instructive. He is not an enemy to the Old Line Insurance Companies but an ardent, enthusiastic believer in the Maccabees.—Adair News.

SUPT. SINGLETON has received a check for 40 per cent of the school fund and he will pay it to the teachers Saturday. He requests teachers to call for their money before 12 o'clock.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL made H. J. McRoberts, the popular haberdasher, say he was selling the famous "Honest Mike" boot at $3. It should have been $3.50 and they are cheap at that. Try a pair.

JESSE D. WEAREN, agent for the Mutual Benefit Insurance Co., delivered to Mrs. Annie Newland yesterday a check for $500, amount of policy carried by her husband, the late O. J. Newland.

THE biggest auction in years will be held at George Holmes' store house, near Crab Orchard depot, next Saturday, Dec. 13. Overcoats, suits, pants, underwear for men and women, shoes, shirts, etc., will go at your own price.

THE regular annual meeting of the Lincoln County Medical Society will be held at Dr. J. F. Peyton's office in Stanford on Tuesday next, 16th. The election of officers will occur and Dr. Steele Bailey will read an interesting paper.

MISS LUCY LEE WALTON celebrated her 10th birthday yesterday by giving a party at which there were about 50 of her little playmates. Each guest brought a birthday present and the little hostess now has a house full of souvenirs of the enjoyable occasion.

NEW ENTERPRISE.—Col. J. P. Chinn has bought a large tract of land in Kentucky river cliffs from William Connor. One of the stipulations of the purchase is that Connor remain on the land and raise red foxes and hounds, for which the colonel is to compensate him liberally.

POSTOFFICE HOURS.—The postoffice opens for the delivery of mail at 7 o'clock each morning except Sunday, when it opens at 7:30 and closes at 8:30 A. M. It is also open from 1 to 2 P. M. each Sunday afternoon. The night mail is made up and closes at 8:30 P. M. J. C. Florence, postmaster.

THE Danville convention is splendid argument in favor of a primary. Had the people gotten what they wanted and asked for—a primary—there would not have been nominated two sets of candidates and there would have been little or no soreness today. Better respect the will of the people.

"WHAT Became of Parker?" the pretty four-act comedy, will be presented at Walton's Opera House early in February, instead of the latter part of this month, as heretofore stated. Miss Georgia Lewis will have charge, which is an assurance of success of the entertainment. The music will be furnished by Saxton, of Lexington, and Miss Margaret Lewis, of this place.

LACKEY.—Mrs. Martha Lackey, relict of Mr. William Lackey, died at the home of her son, Mr. S. E. Lackey, in Gallatin, Tenn., Wednesday night, aged 83. The funeral was preached at her late home yesterday and the burial will occur in Buffalo Springs Cemetery this afternoon. Mrs. Lackey had been confined to her bed for nearly two years and death must have been a sweet relief to her. She was a most excellent christian woman and was fully prepared to meet her Maker. Mrs. Lackey was a Miss Hocker and leaves besides the son mentioned above, two sisters, Mrs. Mary J. Miller, of this place, and Mrs. Jane Ballew, of Garrard. She had a great many friends in and around Stanford who deeply sorrow at her taking away. A godly woman has gone to her reward.

LACKEY WON.—G. T. Lackey, who travels for a St. Louis coffee house, won over nearly a 100 salesmen last month and got a prize of $50 for doing so. The house had offered that amount to the salesman selling most goods.

CATRON.—W. H. Catron, who used to deal extensively in cattle in this county, has been given the Somerset postoffice, over Mr. B. Green Trimble, present incumbent, and several other applicants. Mr. Catron was county judge of Pulaski one or more terms and is a hard working republican.

THE display of holiday goods of Geo. H. Farris & Co. Tuesday was a very creditable one indeed. The finest China ware purchasable was artistically arranged, while lamps and many other useful things were shown by the hundred. Mrs. Mark Hardin and Miss Lizzie Cowan assisted Mr. Farris in arranging his display and decorating his handsome store, and it is useless to state that it was done well.
